PREPARED SPECIFICALLY FOR: Rapid Release Bail Bonds

Chris — your clients name YOU in your reviews — "I will never go through any other bondsman besides Rapid." That's the business: Chris IS the brand. But Chris can only answer one phone, and your website is currently down (suspended — worth checking today). Every call you can't take is a caller meeting some other agency instead of you. The Premium Line answers in your agency's voice, captures the intake, and you call back as Chris within 15 minutes.

THE PROBLEM

At 2 a.m. nobody leaves a voicemail.

The family hangs up mid-ring and dials the next listing in Google — their own reviews admit it: "I called five bondsmen before..."

That's not a missed call. That's a missed premium, lost revenue.

FIELD REPORT — WE CALLED

Another Brighton agency — 5:03 a.m., 8/8/2026: "We are closed. Leave a message." They're losing callers every night — and don't even know it.

A second Brighton agency — 5:11 a.m., 8/8/2026: 3 min on hold, ukulele music, then a human. Their callers hung up and kept dialing.

Nobody stays on hold for 3 minutes. They keep dialing.

THE SOLUTION — WHAT IT DOES

1. Picks up the second you can't — "Thanks for calling, I can get this to a bail agent right away."
2. Captures the intake — defendant's name, where they're being held, whether bond's been set, caller's relationship, callback number. One question at a time, calm tone.
3. Assures the caller a licensed agent will call back in 15 minutes (you can customize the time). It never quotes the premium, never discusses payment plans, never promises a release time.
4. Texts you the Intake Info the moment the caller hangs up.

A caller hearing that reassuring 15-minute promise at 2 a.m. does the following:

1. Instantly relaxes
2. They put their phone down!

WHAT YOU GET AFTER EACH CALL: THE INTAKE INFO. & CALL DATA

In addition to the Intake Info., the text will include:

caller's name · callback number · call duration · link to the full transcript and recording

WHAT IT WILL NEVER DO

- Quote the premium or discuss any other financial topic
- Promise a specific release time
- Give legal advice of any kind
- Sound cheerful or scripted when the caller's stressed

One Town. One Agency.

$497/mo — Charter rate, locked for life. One agency per town.
